Club Descriptions

Name of club	Year Group	Description
Homework	Various	Pupils will be given support in completing homework tasks which have been set. They will have access to computers so that they can log into learning apps and get help if they need it.
Sports Clubs	Various	Run by our PE coaches and teachers, our sports clubs are a great way to help children to develop their skills and fitness in a fun and supportive environment. They are inclusive and accessible to all pupils regardless of levels of skill and confidence.
Sukhmani Sahib Paath Club	Years 4 - 6	This new and exciting club will give pupils to the chance to listen to and read Sukhmani Sahib Paath.
Nitnem Paath Club	Years 2 - 6	One of our most popular clubs is continuing this term. Pupils have the opportunity to learn paath, read Gurmukhi and carry out sewa in the Darbar Sahib.
Art Club	Years 2 - 4	This is a very popular club for artists of all ages and skill-levels. The children will create different artworks every week and will have the chance to practise sketching, painting, creating collages and more.
Musical Performance Club	Years 1 - 6	Led by our Music teacher, Mrs. Grey, children learn to sing and perform a range of exciting songs and prepare for an end of term concert! All ages and confidence levels welcome.
Gardening Club	Reception - Year 4	Children have the opportunity to dig, plant and nurture in our community garden. This was one of our most popular clubs last year so book early to secure your child's place as there are limited spaces.
Computer Club	Years 3 - 6	A range of challenges and skills will be taught at our computer club. Children always really enjoy this club with Mrs. Shah!
